Hebrews 10:19-23 (MSG)

So, friends, we can now—without hesitation—walk right up to God, into “the Holy Place.” Jesus has cleared the way by the blood of his sacrifice, acting as our priest before God. The “curtain” into God’s presence is his body.

So let’s do it—full of belief, confident that we’re presentable inside and out. Let’s keep a firm grip on the promises that keep us going. He always keeps his word. Let’s see how inventive we can be in encouraging love and helping out, not avoiding worshipping together as some do but spurring each other on, especially as we see the big Day approaching.

Message from the Team

Philip Eley

After a term with lots of teaching, this new term will be more focussed on mentoring. There will be lots of new students for me to see and they’ll all have a mix of different issues and concerns. I love mentoring and the schools love us coming in, but it’s still always a bit daunting starting a new term and meeting lots of new students who need a lot of help. The good news is that we know our methods work because we see some incredible breakthroughs time after time, but lets continue to pray for these incredible breakthroughs which really can help some young people to turn their lives around.

This term we are also hoping to train some new community mentors in our TRANSFORM programme, so keep a look out for details of that.
